SYNOPSIS

Availability of protective orders and domestic violence consideration

R.C. 2937.011 and 2937.014

Requires the court to inform the victim, the victim's representative, and the victim's attorney, if applicable, of the option to file a motion for a protection order where an offender is released prior to trial.

Requires any secured bond set for the accused where the offense is an offense of violence committed against a family or household member to be set in compliance with the requirements for bail in certain domestic violence cases.
