The question being, "Shall the bill pass?"

Representative Russo moved to amend, amendment 2096, as follows:

In line 86, after "5104.34," insert "5104.38,"

In line 267, after "5104.34," insert "5104.38,"

After line 52616, insert:

"Sec. 5104.38. In addition to any other rules adopted under this chapter, the director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing financial and administrative requirements for publicly funded child care and establishing all of the following:

(A) Procedures and criteria to be used in making determinations of eligibility for publicly funded child care that give priority to children of families with lower incomes and procedures and criteria for eligibility for publicly funded protective child care or homeless child care. The rules shall specify the maximum amount of income a family may have for initial and continued eligibility. The maximum amount shall ~~not~~ neither be less than one hundred fifty per cent of the federal poverty line nor exceed three hundred per cent of the federal poverty line. The rules may specify exceptions to the eligibility requirements in the case of a family that previously received publicly funded child care and is seeking to have the child care reinstated after the family's eligibility was terminated.

(B) Procedures under which an applicant for publicly funded child care may receive publicly funded child care while the county department of job and family services determines eligibility and under which a child care provider may appeal a denial of payment under division (A)(2)(b) of section 5104.34 of the Revised Code;

(C) A schedule of fees requiring all eligible caretaker parents to pay a fee for publicly funded child care according to income and family size, which shall be uniform for all types of publicly funded child care, except as authorized by rule, and, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall permit the use of state and federal funds to pay the customary deposits and other advance payments that a provider charges all children who receive child care from that provider.

(D) A formula for determining the amount of state and federal funds appropriated for publicly funded child care that may be allocated to a county department to use for administrative purposes;

(E) Procedures to be followed by the department and county departments in recruiting individuals and groups to become providers of child care;

(F) Procedures to be followed in establishing state or local programs designed to assist individuals who are eligible for publicly funded child care in identifying the resources available to them and to refer the individuals to appropriate sources to obtain child care;

(G) Procedures to deal with fraud and abuse committed by either recipients or providers of publicly funded child care;

(H) Procedures for establishing a child care grant or loan program in accordance with the child care block grant act;

(I) Standards and procedures for applicants to apply for grants and loans, and for the department to make grants and loans;

(J) A definition of "person who stands in loco parentis" for the purposes of division (LL)(3) of section 5104.01 of the Revised Code;

(K) Procedures for a county department of job and family services to follow in making eligibility determinations and redeterminations for publicly funded child care available through telephone, computer, and other means at locations other than the county department;

(L) If the director establishes a different reimbursement ceiling under division (E)(3)(d) of section 5104.30 of the Revised Code, standards and procedures for determining the amount of the higher payment that is to be issued to a child care provider based on the special needs of the child being served;

(M) To the extent permitted by federal law, procedures for paying for up to thirty days of child care for a child whose caretaker parent is seeking employment, taking part in employment orientation activities, or taking part in activities in anticipation of enrolling in or attending an education or training program or activity, if the employment or the education or training program or activity is expected to begin within the thirty-day period;

(N) Any other rules necessary to carry out sections 5104.30 to 5104.43 of the Revised Code."

In line 66966, after "5104.34," insert "5104.38,"

In line 75569, delete "$961,819,158 $1,025,474,447" and insert "$986,719,158 $1,054,174,447"

In line 313, after "4104.35," insert "4111.021, 4113.87, 4113.88, 4113.89, 4113.90, 4113.91, 4113.92, 4113.93,"

After line 44170, insert:

Sec. 4111.02. ~~Every~~ Except as provided in section 4111.021 of the Revised Code, every employer, as defined in Section 34a of Article II, Ohio Constitution, shall pay each of the employer's employees at a wage rate of not less than the wage rate specified in Section 34a of Article II, Ohio Constitution.

The director of commerce annually shall adjust the wage rate as specified in Section 34a of Article II, Ohio Constitution.

No political subdivision shall establish a minimum wage rate different from the wage rate required under this section.

As used in this section, "employee" has the same meaning as in section 4111.14 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4111.021. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Direct services employee" means an employee who is employed in a position in which the employee has the opportunity to be alone with or exercises supervision or control over one or more individuals and any of the following apply:

(a) The employee is employed by a medicaid provider to furnish medicaid services to medicaid recipients.

(b) The employee is employed in a direct services position as that term is defined in section 5123.081 of the Revised Code.

(c) The employee is employed by a state agency for the purpose of providing health care.

(2) "Medicaid provider" and "medicaid services" have the same meanings as in section 5164.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) Every employer shall pay each of the employer's direct services employees at a wage rate that is not less than the higher of the following:

(1) The highest wage rate calculated by the director of commerce in accordance with Section 34a of Article II, Ohio Constitution, and section 4111.02 of the Revised Code;

(2) The hourly basic minimum wage specified in section 206(a)(1) of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 29 U.S.C. 206(a)(1), as amended;

(3) Thirteen dollars per hour.

Sec. 4111.13. (A) No employer shall hinder or delay the director of commerce in the performance of the director's duties in the enforcement of sections 4111.01 to 4111.17 of the Revised Code, or refuse to admit the director to any place of employment, or fail to make, keep, and preserve any records as required under those sections, or falsify any of those records, or refuse to make them accessible to the director upon demand, or refuse to furnish them or any other information required for the proper enforcement of those sections to the director upon demand, or fail to post a summary of those sections or a copy of any applicable rules as required by section 4111.09 of the Revised Code. Each day of violation constitutes a separate offense.

(B) No employer shall discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee because the employee has made any complaint to the employee's employer, or to the director, that the employee has not been paid wages in accordance with sections 4111.01 to 4111.17 of the Revised Code, or because the employee has made any complaint or is about to cause to be instituted any proceeding under or related to those sections, or because the employee has testified or is about to testify in any proceeding.

(C) No employer shall pay or agree to pay wages at a rate less than the rate applicable under sections 4111.01 to 4111.17 of the Revised Code. Each week or portion thereof for which the employer pays any employee less than the rate applicable under those sections constitutes a separate offense as to each employer.

(D) No employer shall otherwise violate sections 4111.01 to 4111.17 of the Revised Code, or any rule adopted thereunder. Each day of violation constitutes a separate offense.

(E) The culpability sufficient to commit a violation of this section is reckless if the violation is related to section 4111.021 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4113.87. As used in this section and sections 4113.88 to 4113.93 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Appropriate unit" means independent child care providers or independent home care providers, whichever is the subject of the bargaining activity.

(B) "Independent child care provider" means any of the following persons:

(1) A person who is licensed as a type A home who does not meet the definition of "employee" under section 2 of the "National Labor Relations Act," 29 U.S.C. 152;

(2) A person who is a licensed type B home;

(3) A person who is an in-home aide who is not a county or state employee.

(C) "Independent home care provider" means any person who has a medicaid provider agreement to provide either of the following on a self-employed basis and without employing, directly or through contract, another person:

(1) State plan home and community-based services covered by the medicaid program pursuant to section 5164.16 of the Revised Code;

(2) Home and community-based services available under a medicaid waiver component as defined in section 5166.01 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Provider" means an independent child care provider or an independent home care provider.

(E) "Recipient" means any person receiving the services of an independent child care provider or an independent home care provider, or that person's parent or legal guardian.

(F) "Representative organization" means any employee organization as defined in section 4117.01 of the Revised Code or any labor or bona fide organization in which providers participate and that exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with the state concerning grievances, wages, hours, terms, and other conditions of employment of providers that are within the control of the state.

(G) "Type A home," "licensed type B home," and "in-home aide" have the same meanings as in section 5104.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4113.88. Providers may do all of the following:

(A) Form, join, assist, or participate in, or refrain from forming, joining, assisting, or participating in, any representative organization of their own choosing;

(B) Engage in concerted activities, other than those described in division (A) of this section, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid and protection;

(C) Be represented by a representative organization;

(D) Bargain collectively with the state to determine wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment that are within the control of the state and the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement, and enter into a collective bargaining agreement;

(E) Present grievances and have them adjusted, without the intervention of the representative organization, so long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of any collective bargaining agreement then in effect and the representative organization has the opportunity to be present at the adjustment.

Sec. 4113.89. (A) A representative organization shall become the exclusive representative of all the providers in an appropriate unit for the purpose of collective bargaining by filing a request with the state for recognition as an exclusive representative, as described in division (B) of this section, a copy of which shall be sent to the state employment relations board.

(B)(1) In the request for recognition, the representative organization shall do all of the following:

(a) Describe the bargaining unit;

(b) Allege that a majority of the providers in the bargaining unit wish to be represented by the representative organization;

(c) Support the request with substantial evidence based on, and in accordance with, rules prescribed by the state employment relations board demonstrating that a majority of the providers in the bargaining unit wish to be represented by the representative organization.

(2) Immediately on receipt of the request described in this section, the state shall request an election in accordance with the same requirements as provided in division (A)(2) of section 4117.07 of the Revised Code.

(C) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the state to recognize, or the state employment relations board to certify, a representative organization as an exclusive representative if there is in effect a lawful written agreement, contract, or memorandum of understanding between the state and another representative organization that, on the effective date of this section, has been recognized by the state as the exclusive representative of the providers in an appropriate unit or that by tradition, custom, practice, election, or negotiation has been the only representative organization representing all providers in the unit. This division does not apply to any agreement that has been in effect in excess of three years. For purposes of this section, extensions of an agreement do not affect the expiration of the original agreement.

Sec. 4113.90. (A) All matters pertaining to wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment that are within the control of the state and the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement, are subject to collective bargaining between the state and the exclusive representative as described in section 4113.89 of the Revised Code, except as otherwise specified in this section.

(B) This section does not alter the unique relations between providers and recipients of care. The recipient retains the absolute right to choose providers and to control the hiring, termination, and supervision of providers.

(C) This section does not affect the ability of the state to take appropriate action when a provider is no longer eligible to provide care under state or federal law, or any rules or regulations adopted thereunder.

Sec. 4113.91. The parties to any collective bargaining agreement entered into pursuant to sections 4113.87 to 4113.90 of the Revised Code shall record that agreement in writing, which is to be executed by all of the parties to the agreement. The agreement shall contain the same provisions as described in division (B) of section 4117.09 of the Revised Code, as applicable. These provisions apply to the state, its agents or representatives, any representative organization, its agents or representatives, and to providers in the same manner as the same provisions apply to public employers, public employees, and employee organizations as described in Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4113.92. The state employment relations board has the same authority as described in sections 4117.12 and 4117.13 of the Revised Code to investigate, hold hearings, make determinations, and issue complaints regarding unfair labor practices, insofar as that authority does not conflict with sections 4113.87 to 4113.93 of the Revised Code. For purposes of this section, "unfair labor practice" has the same meaning as in section 4117.11 of the Revised Code, except any provisions applying to public employers shall apply to the state, any provisions applying to employee organizations shall apply to representative organizations, and any provisions applying to public employees shall apply to providers.

Sec. 4113.93. A provider is not an employee of the state or in the service of the state."

"Sec. 291.70. HEALTH EMERGENCY POWERS REVIEW COMMITTEE

(A) There is hereby established the Health Emergency Powers Review Committee consisting of the following nineteen members:

(1) Fifteen members appointed by the Director of Health, including at least one attorney with expertise in public health, one attorney with expertise in constitutional issues, and three epidemiologists;

(2) Two members from the Senate, one from the majority party and one from the minority party, both appointed by the President of the Senate;

(3) Two members from the House of Representatives, one from the majority party and one from the minority party, both appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(B) The Committee shall meet not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section to elect a Committee chairperson. Thereafter, the Committee shall meet at the call of the chair to review Revised Code provisions related to the powers of the Department of Health and local boards of health during times of emergency related to public health.

(C) Not later than one year after the effective date of this section, the Committee shall submit a report to the General Assembly. The report shall include any recommendations that the Committee has regarding changes to the power of the Department and local boards of health during times of emergency related to public health. Any changes recommended by the committee shall be constitutional.

(D) The Committee shall cease to exist upon the submission of its report to the General Assembly."

After line 83221, insert:

"Section 741.20.(A) As used in this section, "benefits" has the same meaning as in section 4141.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) If the Director of Job and Family Services determines that an individual has been paid benefits to which the individual was not entitled for reasons other than fraudulent misrepresentation, the Director shall recover the overpayment in accordance with division (B) of section 4141.35 of the Revised Code, except that the Director shall waive collection of the overpayment if the Director determines that all of the following apply:

(1) The benefit was intended to compensate the individual for a week of unemployment occurring during the period beginning March 15, 2020, and ending the week that includes September 30, 2021.

(2) The individual who received the benefit was not at fault for the overpayment.

(3) Repayment would cause an undue hardship on the individual who received the benefit.

(C) If an individual has received a payment of Pandemic Unemployment Assistance under the "Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act," 15 U.S.C. 9021, to which the individual was not entitled, the Director shall recover the overpayment in accordance with division (B)(2) of section 4141.35 of the Revised Code, except that the Director shall waive collection of the overpayment if the Director determines that all of the following apply:

(1) The payment was intended to compensate the individual for any week of unemployment or inability to work during the period beginning January 27, 2020, and ending the week that includes September 4, 2021.

(2) The individual who received the payment was not at fault for the overpayment.

(3) Repayment would cause an undue hardship on the individual who received the payment."
