Sec. 3513.25. Except as otherwise provided in section 1901.07 of the Revised Code concerning elections for municipal court judges:

(A) Nominations of candidates for judicial offices shall be made only by nonpartisan primary election as provided in this section, and their election shall occur only in nonpartisan elections.

(B) Candidates for nomination to judicial offices shall appear on a nonpartisan ballot at the primary election. No name or designation of any political party nor any words, designations, or emblems descriptive of a candidate or the candidate's political affiliation shall be printed on the ballot in association with the candidate's name. The candidates for an office who receive the highest and second highest number of votes shall appear on the nonpartisan ballot at the general election for that office.

(C)(1) Each person desiring to become a candidate for nomination to a judicial office shall, not later than four p.m. of the ninetieth day before the day of the primary election, file a nonpartisan declaration of candidacy and petition, on forms prescribed by the secretary of state, and pay the applicable fees required under section 3513.10 of the Revised Code. The declaration of candidacy shall designate the term of the office the person seeks in accordance with section 3513.08 of the Revised Code. The declaration of candidacy also shall designate a committee of five electors to represent the candidate.

(2) If the candidacy is for the office of chief justice or justice of the supreme court, the petition shall be filed with the secretary of state and shall be signed by at least one thousand qualified electors, provided that the secretary of state shall not accept for filing any such petition appearing on its face to contain signatures of more than two thousand electors. The petition shall not be deemed invalid if, upon verification of signatures contained in the petition, the secretary of state finds that the number of signatures accepted exceeds two thousand.

(3) If the candidacy is for any other judicial office, all of the following apply:

(a) If the candidacy is to be submitted to electors only in one county, the petition shall be filed with the board of elections. If the candidacy is to be submitted to electors in more than one county, the petition shall be filed with the board of elections of the county with the largest portion of the population residing in the territory over which the court has jurisdiction, as determined by the most recent federal decennial census.

(b) The petition shall be signed by at least fifty qualified electors of the territory over which the court has jurisdiction, provided that the board shall not accept for filing any such petition appearing on its face to contain signatures of more than one hundred fifty electors. The petition shall not be deemed invalid if, upon verification of signatures contained in the petition, the board finds that the number of signatures accepted exceeds one hundred fifty.

(4) The declaration of candidacy need be signed by the candidate, or an attorney in fact acting pursuant to section 3501.382 of the Revised Code, on only one of the separate petition papers, but the signed declaration of candidacy shall be copied on each other separate petition paper before the signatures of electors are placed on it.

(D)(1) The declaration of candidacy and all separate petition papers shall be filed at the same time as one instrument. The election officials shall not accept for filing a declaration of candidacy and petition of a person seeking to become a candidate if that person, for the same election, has already filed a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, or has become a candidate by the filling of a vacancy under section 3513.30 of the Revised Code, for any federal, state, or county office, if the declaration of candidacy is for a state or county office, or for any municipal or township office, if the declaration of candidacy is for a municipal office.

(2) The petition shall consist of separate petition papers, each of which shall contain signatures of electors of only one county. Petitions or separate petition papers containing signatures of electors of more than one county shall not thereby be declared invalid. If petitions or separate petition papers containing signatures of electors of more than one county are filed, the election officials with whom the petitions are filed shall determine the county from which the majority of the signatures came, and only signatures from that county shall be counted. Signatures from any other county shall be invalid.

(3) Each separate petition paper shall be circulated by one person only, and each separate petition paper shall be governed by section 3501.38 of the Revised Code.

(E)(1) The secretary of state promptly shall transmit the separate petition papers to the appropriate boards of elections. A board of elections that receives separate petition papers that purport to contain signatures of electors of another county promptly shall transmit the petition papers to the board of elections of that county.

(2) All petition papers filed with or transmitted to a board shall, under proper regulations, be open to public inspection until four p.m. of the eightieth day before the day of the primary election. Each board shall, not later than the seventy-eighth day before the day of the primary election, examine and determine the validity or invalidity of the signatures on the petition papers and, if applicable, shall return them to the election officials from whom they were received, together with its certification of its determination as to the validity or invalidity of the signatures. All other matters affecting the validity or invalidity of the petition papers shall be determined by the election officials with whom the petition papers are filed.

(F) Protests against the candidacy of any person filing a declaration of candidacy and petition under this section may be filed by any qualified elector who is eligible to vote for the candidate to whose declaration of candidacy the elector objects. The protest shall be in writing and shall be filed not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fourth day before the day of the primary election in the office in which the declaration of candidacy and petition are filed. Upon the filing of the protest, the election officials with whom the protest is filed shall promptly fix the time for hearing it, and shall forthwith mail notice of the filing of the protest and the time fixed for hearing to the person whose candidacy is so protested. The election officials shall also forthwith mail notice of the time fixed for such hearing to the person who filed the protest. At the time fixed, the election officials shall hear the protest and determine the validity or invalidity of the declaration of candidacy and petition. If the election officials find that the candidate is not an elector of the state or of the territory in which the candidate seeks nomination, as applicable, or has not fully complied with this chapter, the candidate's declaration of candidacy and petition shall be determined to be invalid and shall be rejected; otherwise, it shall be determined to be valid. That determination shall be final."
