BILLS FOR THIRD CONSIDERATION

Sub. H. J. R. No. 2—Representatives LaRe, Swearingen.

Proposing to amend Section 9 of Article I of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to eliminate the requirement that the amount and conditions of bail be established pursuant to Section 5(b) of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, and instead allow the courts to use factors such as public safety, including the seriousness of the offense, and a person's criminal record, the likelihood a person will return to court, and any other factor the General Assembly may prescribe.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on November 8, 2022, a proposal to amend Section 9 of Article I of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE I

Section 9. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for a person who is charged with a capital offense where the proof is evident or the presumption great, and except for a person who is charged with a felony where the proof is evident or the presumption great and where the person poses a substantial risk of serious physical harm to any person or to the community. Where a person is charged with any offense for which the person may be incarcerated, the court may determine at any time the type, amount, and conditions of bail. Excessive bail shall not be required; nor excessive fines imposed; nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted. When determining the amount of bail, the court shall consider public safety, including the seriousness of the offense, and a person's criminal record, the likelihood a person will return to court, and any other factor the general assembly may prescribe.

The general assembly shall fix by law standards to determine whether a person who is charged with a felony where the proof is evident or the presumption great poses a substantial risk of serious physical harm to any person or to the community. ~~Procedures for establishing the amount and conditions of bail shall be established pursuant to Article IV, Section 5(B) of the Constitution of the State of Ohio.~~

EFFECTIVE DATE

If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this proposal, Section 9 of Article I of the Constitution of the State of Ohio amended by this proposal shall take effect immediately and the existing version of Section 9 of Article I of the Constitution of the State of Ohio shall be repealed effective immediately, was taken up for consideration the third time.

Representative LaRe moved to amend the title as follows:

Add the names: "Abrams, Bird, Carruthers, Click, Creech, Cross, Cutrona, Edwards, Fraizer, Ghanbari, Ginter, Grendell, Gross, Hall, Holmes, Hoops, John, Johnson, Jones, Kick, Koehler, Lampton, Lipps, Loychik, McClain, Miller, K., Oelslager, Plummer, Richardson, Riedel, Roemer, Schmidt, Seitz, Stein, Stephens, Stevens, White, Wiggam, Wilkin, Young, B., Young, T., Speaker Cupp."

The motion was agreed to and the title so amended.

The title as amended was agreed to.

H. J. R. No. 4-Representatives Edwards, Seitz.

Cosponsors: Representatives John, Creech, Fowler Arthur, Stevens, Stewart.

Proposing to amend Section 1 of Article V, Section 3 of Article X, and Section 3 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to prohibit local governments from allowing persons who lack the qualifications of an elector to vote in local elections.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on November 8, 2022, a proposal to amend Section 1 of Article V, Section 3 of Article X, and Section 3 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE V

Section 1. ~~Every~~ Only a citizen of the United States, of the age of eighteen years, who has been a resident of the state, county, township, or ward, such time as may be provided by law, and has been registered to vote for thirty days, has the qualifications of an elector, and is entitled to vote at all elections. No person who lacks those qualifications shall be permitted to vote at any state or local election held in this state. Any elector who fails to vote in at least one election during any period of four consecutive years shall cease to be an elector unless ~~he~~ the elector again registers to vote.

ARTICLE X

Section 3. The people of any county may frame and adopt or amend a charter as provided in this article but the right of the initiative and referendum is reserved to the people of each county on all matters which such county may now or hereafter be authorized to control by legislative action. Every such charter shall provide the form of government of the county and shall determine which of its officers shall be elected and the manner of their election, subject to the requirements of Section 1 of Article V of this constitution. It shall provide for the exercise of all powers vested in, and the performance of all duties imposed upon counties and county officers by law. Any such charter may provide for the concurrent or exclusive exercise by the county, in all or in part of its area, of all or of any designated powers vested by the constitution or laws of Ohio in municipalities; it may provide for the organization of the county as a municipal corporation; and in any such case it may provide for the succession by the county to the rights, properties, and obligations of municipalities and townships therein incident to the municipal power so vested in the county, and for the division of the county into districts for purposes of administration or of taxation or of both. Any charter or amendment which alters the form and offices of county government or which provides for the exercise by the county of powers vested in municipalities by the constitution or laws of Ohio, or both, shall become effective if approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. In case of conflict between the exercise of powers granted by such charter and the exercise of powers by municipalities or townships, granted by the constitution or general law, whether or not such powers are being exercised at the time of the adoption of the charter, the exercise of power by the municipality or township shall prevail. A charter or amendment providing for the exclusive exercise of municipal powers by the county or providing for the succession by the county to any property or obligation of any municipality or township without the consent of the legislative authority of such municipality or township shall become effective only when it shall have been approved by a majority of those voting thereon (1) in the county, (2) in the largest municipality, (3) in the county outside of such municipality, and (4) in counties having a population, based upon the latest preceding federal decennial census, of 500,000 or less, in each of a majority of the combined total of municipalities and townships in the county (not including within any township any part of its area lying within a municipality.)

ARTICLE XVIII

Section 3. ~~Municipalities~~ Subject to the requirements of Section 1 of Article V of this constitution, municipalities shall have authority to exercise all powers of local self-government and to adopt and enforce within their limits such local police, sanitary and other similar regulations, as are not in conflict with general laws.

EFFECTIVE DATE

If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this proposal, Section 1 of Article V, Section 3 of Article X, and Section 3 of Article XVIII amended by this proposal shall take effect immediately and the existing version of Section 1 of Article V, the existing version of Section 3 of Article X, and the existing version of Section 3 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio shall be repealed from that effective date, was taken up for consideration the third time.
