A RESOLUTION

Recognizing January 2021 as National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 134th General Assembly 1 of Ohio are pleased to acknowledge National Slavery and Human 2 Trafficking Prevention Month, January 2021; and 3

WHEREAS, In an effort to increase public knowledge and 4 understanding of the issues surrounding the enslavement and 5 trafficking of humans beings, as well as to commemorate 6 President Abraham Lincoln issuing the Emancipation Proclamation and 7 the United States Congress passing the 13th Amendment to the 8 Constitution, the month of January was first designated by 9
President Barack Obama as National Slavery and Human Trafficking 10 Prevention Month in 2010, and President Donald Trump has continued 11 this annual tradition by proclaiming National Slavery and Human 12 Trafficking Prevention Month 2021. Affecting millions of individuals 13 of all races and countries, slavery and human trafficking has long- 14 lasting repercussions, not only for victims and their families but 15 also for communities and society as a whole; and 16

WHEREAS, The universal freedom from unlawful imprisonment and 17 enslavement is an issue of crucial importance to all members of our 18 global society. Many governments, including the United States, have 19 passed stronger laws and improved their enforcement and education 20 campaigns to help end human trafficking. Despite these efforts, 21 businesses, community organizations, faith-based groups, families, and 22 Americans everywhere continue to have an important part to play in 23 helping to end this scourge; and 24

WHEREAS, National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month 25 provides an opportunity for organizations and individuals to raise 26 awareness of this important matter and to formulate plans for the 27 future. As Ohioans, we have a responsibility to support the survivors 28 of this terrible crime as they rebuild their lives and to dismantle 29 trafficking networks wherever they may be found, and all those taking 30 part in the observance of this month with appropriate programs and 31 activities are deserving of high praise; therefore be it 32

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 134th General 33 Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, recognize January 2021 34 as National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month; and be it 35 further 36

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit duly authenticated 37 copies of this Resolution to the news media of Ohio. 38
