S. R. No. 245

Senator Craig

A RESOLUTION

Honoring Accelerated Laboratory Logistics on its Centennial.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 134th General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to applaud Accelerated Laboratory Logistics on its One Hundredth Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Founded in 1921 by Clarence Jacobs as the Jacobs Transfer Company, Accelerated Laboratory Logistics rebranded in 1990, and it remains a prominent family-owned and operated business in Central Ohio. It has narrowed its focus over the years to become one of the leading relocation companies in the country for biomedical research, medical center, and university laboratories, and it has become known and respected for its exemplary professionalism and unwavering commitment to maintaining the highest standards; and

WHEREAS, Accelerated Laboratory Logistics' praiseworthy record of service is a result of the hard work, dedication, and dependability of each employee as well as the business acumen and leadership ability of generations of the Jacobs and Wilson families. Indeed, all those who comprise this esteemed black-owned venture have displayed tremendous initiative, and their contributions have been instrumental to the success that has been achieved even during challenging eras, including The Great Depression and World War II; and

WHEREAS, Ohio's economic well-being depends on endeavors such as Accelerated Laboratory Logistics to satisfy the demands of unique niches. Ohio has gained a fine reputation as a state that encourages and sustains its established enterprises, and we are proud of the longevity and prosperity of Accelerated Laboratory Logistics;
therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 134th General 26
Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, pay tribute to 27
Accelerated Laboratory Logistics on the occasion of its One Hundredth 28 Anniversary and salute it as a fine Ohio service supplier; and be it 29 further 30
