A BILL

1	To enact sections 109.50 and 109.96 of the Revised
2	Code to create the Bureau of Hate Crimes in the
3	Office of the Attorney General and to authorize
4	the Attorney General to prosecute hate crimes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 109.50 and 109.96 of the Revised	5
Code be enacted to read as follows:	6
Sec. 109.50. (A) As used in this section, "hate crime"	7
means a crime motivated by, or that manifests evidence of,	8
prejudice based on actual or perceived race, color, gender and	9
gender identity, religion, national origin, ethnicity,	10 disability, or sexual orientation.	11
(B) The bureau of hate crimes is created in the office of	12
the attorney general. The attorney general shall appoint a	13 director of the bureau. The director may appoint, with the	14 approval of the attorney general, such assistants as are	15 necessary to carry out the functions and duties of the bureau	16
under this section.	17

(C) The bureau of hate crimes may create a staff of	18
investigators skilled in the solution and control of hate crimes	19
and related criminal activity, investigate such crimes, keep	20 statistics and other necessary data, assist in the prevention of	21 hate crime, and engage in such other activities as will aid law	22 enforcement officers in solving hate crimes and controlling	23
related criminal activity.	24
(D) The bureau of hate crimes, when necessary, may	25
request, from the United States Attorney General, such	26
technical, forensic, prosecutorial, or any other form of	27 assistance in the criminal investigation of a hate crime that is	28 available to the state or a local government of the state, under	29
34 U.S.C. 30303.	30
(E) The attorney general may prosecute any crime that the	31
attorney general has cause to believe is a hate crime in	32
accordance with section 109.96 of the Revised Code.	33
(F) The attorney general shall include on the web site of	34
the attorney general a page dedicated to the bureau of hate	35
crimes, on which is made known a telephone number, and an email	36
address, electronic form, or other electronic means of	37
communication, to be used for reporting suspected occurrences of	38
<pre>hate crime.</pre>	39
	4.0
Sec. 109.96. (A) As used in this section, "hate crime" has	40
the meaning defined in section 109.50 of the Revised Code.	41
(B) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to	42
the contrary pertaining to prosecutorial authority, the attorney	43
general may initiate a criminal proceeding for any crime that	44
the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe is a hate	45
crime by presenting evidence of a criminal violation in question	46

to the prosecuting attorney of any county in which the violation	47 may be prosecuted. If the prosecuting attorney does not	48 prosecute the violation within a reasonable time or requests the	49
attorney general to do so, the attorney general may proceed with	50
the prosecution of the violation with all of the rights,	51 privileges, and powers conferred by law on a prosecuting	52 attorney, including the power to appear before a grand jury and	53
to interrogate witnesses before a grand jury.	54
