continuing professional training set by the commission. An 95 extension granted under this division may be for any period of 96 time the executive director believes to be appropriate, and the 97 executive director shall specify in the notice granting the 98 extension the date on which the extension ends. Not later than 99 thirty days after the date on which a request is submitted to 100 an appointing authority must complete the required minimum 109 number of hours of continuing professional training set by the 110 commission, the appointing authority shall require that peace 111 officer or trooper to complete the required minimum number of 112 hours of training not later than the date on which the extension 113

(C) The sentencing court shall consider all of the following that apply regarding the offender, the offense, or the victim, and any other relevant factors, as indicating that the offender's conduct is less serious than conduct normally constituting the offense:

(1) The victim induced or facilitated the offense.

(2) In committing the offense, the offender acted under strong provocation.

(3) In committing the offense, the offender did not cause or expect to cause physical harm to any person or property.

(4) There are substantial grounds to mitigate the offender's conduct, although the grounds are not enough to constitute a defense.

(D) The sentencing court shall consider all of the following that apply regarding the offender, and any other relevant factors, as factors indicating that the offender is likely to commit future crimes:

(1) At the time of committing the offense, the offender was under release from confinement before trial or sentencing; was under a sanction imposed pursuant to section 2929.16, 2929.17, or 2929.18 of the Revised Code; was under post-release control pursuant to section 2967.28 or any other provision of 505 the Revised Code for an earlier offense or had been unfavorably 506 terminated from post-release control for a prior offense 507 pursuant to division (B) of section 2967.16 or section 2929.141 508 of the Revised Code; was under transitional control in 509 connection with a prior offense; or had absconded from the 510

(2) The offender previously was adjudicated a delinquent 514 child pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code prior to 515

Code, or the offender has a history of criminal convictions. 517

(3) The offender has not been rehabilitated to a 518 satisfactory degree after previously being adjudicated a 519 delinquent child pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code 520 prior to January 1, 2002, or pursuant to Chapter 2152. of the 521 Revised Code, or the offender has not responded favorably to 522 sanctions previously imposed for criminal convictions. 523

(4) The offender has demonstrated a pattern of drug or 524 alcohol abuse that is related to the offense, and the offender 525 refuses to acknowledge that the offender has demonstrated that 526 pattern, or the offender refuses treatment for the drug or 527 alcohol abuse. 528

(5) The offender shows no genuine remorse for the offense. 529

(E) The sentencing court shall consider all of the 530 following that apply regarding the offender, and any other 531 relevant factors, as factors indicating that the offender is not 532 likely to commit future crimes: 533

(1) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had not been adjudicated a delinquent child.	534 535
(2) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a criminal offense.	536 537

(F) The sentencing court shall consider the offender's military service record and whether the offender has an emotional, mental, or physical condition that is traceable to the offender's service in the armed forces of the United States and that was a contributing factor in the offender's commission of the offense or offenses.	543 544 545 546 547 548
(G) The sentencing court shall consider the results of any screening conducted in the case under division (A) (2) (e) of section 2935.032 of the Revised Code, if any such results are available.	549 550 551 552
Sec. 2929.22. (A) Unless a mandatory jail term is required to be imposed by division (G) of section 1547.99, division (B) of section 4510.14, division (G) of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code, or any other provision of the Revised Code a court that imposes a sentence under this chapter upon an offender for a misdemeanor or minor misdemeanor has discretion to determine the most effective way to achieve the purposes and principles of sentencing set forth in section 2929.21 of the Revised Code.	553 554 555 556 557 558 559 560
Unless a specific sanction is required to be imposed or is	561 precluded from being imposed by the section setting forth an 562 offense or the penalty for an offense or by any provision of 563 sections 2929.23 to 2929.28 of the Revised Code, a court that 564 imposes a sentence upon an offender for a misdemeanor may impose 565 on the offender any sanction or combination of sanctions under 566 sections 2929.24 to 2929.28 of the Revised Code. The court shall 567 not impose a sentence that imposes an unnecessary burden on 568 local government resources. 569

(B) (1) In determining the appropriate sentence for a 570 misdemeanor, the court shall consider all of the following 571 factors: 572

(a) The nature and circumstances of the offense or 573 offenses; 574

(b) Whether the circumstances regarding the offender and 575 the offense or offenses indicate that the offender has a history 576 of persistent criminal activity and that the offender's 577 character and condition reveal a substantial risk that the 578 offender will commit another offense; 579

(c) Whether the circumstances regarding the offender and 580 the offense or offenses indicate that the offender's history, 581
character, and condition reveal a substantial risk that the 582
offender will be a danger to others and that the offender's 583 conduct has been characterized by a pattern of repetitive, 584 compulsive, or aggressive behavior with heedless indifference to 585 the consequences; 586

(d) Whether the victim's youth, age, disability, or other 587 factor made the victim particularly vulnerable to the offense or 588 made the impact of the offense more serious; 589

(e) Whether the offender is likely to commit future crimes 590 in general, in addition to the circumstances described in 591 divisions (B) (1) (b) and (c) of this section; 592

(f) Whether the offender has an emotional, mental, or 593 physical condition that is traceable to the offender's service 594 in the armed forces of the United States and that was a 595 contributing factor in the offender's commission of the offense 596 or offenses; 597

(g) The offender's military service record; 598

(h) The results of any screening conducted in the case 599 under division (A) (2) (e) of section 2935.032 of the Revised 600 Code, if any such results are available. 601

(2) In determining the appropriate sentence for a 602 misdemeanor, in addition to complying with division (B) (1) of 603 this section, the court may consider any other factors that are 604 relevant to achieving the purposes and principles of sentencing 605 set forth in section 2929.21 of the Revised Code. 606

(C) Before imposing a jail term as a sentence for a 607 misdemeanor, a court shall consider the appropriateness of 608 imposing a community control sanction or a combination of 609 community control sanctions under sections 2929.25, 2929.26, 610 2929.27, and 2929.28 of the Revised Code. A court may impose the 611 longest jail term authorized under section 2929.24 of the 612 Revised Code only upon offenders who commit the worst forms of 613 the offense or upon offenders whose conduct and response to 614 prior sanctions for prior offenses demonstrate that the 615 imposition of the longest jail term is necessary to deter the 616 offender from committing a future criminal offense. 617

(D) (1) A sentencing court shall consider any relevant oral 618 and written statement made by the victim, the victim's 619 representative, the victim's attorney, if applicable, the 620 defendant, the defense attorney, and the prosecuting authority 621 regarding sentencing for a misdemeanor. This division does not 622 create any rights to notice other than those rights authorized 623 by Chapter 2930. of the Revised Code. 624

(2) At the time of sentencing for a misdemeanor or as soon 625 as possible after sentencing, the court shall notify the victim 626 of the offense of the victim's right to file an application for 627 an award of reparations pursuant to sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 628 of the Revised Code. 629

warrant can be obtained any person who the peace officer has 720 reasonable cause to believe is guilty of the violation. 721

(2) For purposes of division (B)(1) of this section, the 722 execution of any of the following constitutes reasonable ground 723

(3) (a) For purposes of division (B) (1) of this section, a 754 peace officer described in division (A) of this section has 755 reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of domestic 756 violence or the offense of violating a protection order has been 757 committed and reasonable cause to believe that a particular 758 person is guilty of committing the offense if any of the 759 following occurs: 760

(i) A person executes a written statement alleging that 761 the person in question has committed the offense of domestic 762 violence or the offense of violating a protection order against 763 the person who executes the statement or against a child of the 764 person who executes the statement. 765

(ii) No written statement of the type described in 766 division (B) (3) (a) (i) of this section is executed, but the peace 767 officer, based upon the peace officer's own knowledge and 768 observation of the facts and circumstances of the alleged 769 incident of the offense of domestic violence or the alleged 770 incident of the offense of violating a protection order or based 771 upon any other information, including, but not limited to, any 772 reasonably trustworthy information given to the peace officer by 773 the alleged victim of the alleged incident of the offense or any 774 witness of the alleged incident of the offense, concludes that 775 there are reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of 776 domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order 777 has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that the 778 person in question is guilty of committing the offense. 779

(iii) No written statement of the type described in 780 division (B) (3) (a) (i) of this section is executed, but the peace 781 officer witnessed the person in question commit the offense of 782 domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection 783 order. 784

(b) If pursuant to division (B) (3) (a) of this section a 785 peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the offense 786 of domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection 787 order has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that a 788 particular person is guilty of committing the offense, it is the 789 preferred course of action in this state that the officer arrest 790 and detain that person pursuant to division (B) (1) of this 791 section until a warrant can be obtained. 792

If pursuant to division (B) (3) (a) of this section a peace 793 officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of 794 domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order 795 has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that family 796 or household members have committed the offense against each 797 other, it is the preferred course of action in this state that 798 the officer, pursuant to division (B) (1) of this section, arrest 799 and detain until a warrant can be obtained the family or 800 household member who committed the offense and whom the officer 801 has reasonable cause to believe is the primary physical 802 aggressor. There is no preferred course of action in this state 803 regarding any other family or household member who committed the 804 offense and whom the officer does not have reasonable cause to 805 believe is the primary physical aggressor, but, pursuant to 806 division (B) (1) of this section, the peace officer may arrest 807 and detain until a warrant can be obtained any other family or 808 household member who committed the offense and whom the officer 809 does not have reasonable cause to believe is the primary 810 physical aggressor. 811

(c) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 812 section does not arrest and detain a person whom the officer has 813 reasonable cause to believe committed the offense of domestic 814 violence or the offense of violating a protection order when it 815 is the preferred course of action in this state pursuant to 816 division (B) (3) (b) of this section that the officer arrest that 817 person, the officer shall articulate in the written report of 818 the incident required by section 2935.032 of the Revised Code a 819 clear statement of the officer's reasons for not arresting and 820 detaining that person until a warrant can be obtained. 821

(d) In determining for purposes of division (B) (3) (b) of 822 this section which family or household member is the primary 823 physical aggressor in a situation in which family or household 824 members have committed the offense of domestic violence or the 825 offense of violating a protection order against each other, a 826 peace officer described in division (A) of this section, in 827 addition to any other relevant circumstances, should consider 828 all of the following: 829

(i) Any history of domestic violence or of any other 830 violent acts by either person involved in the alleged offense 831 that the officer reasonably can ascertain; 832

(ii) If violence is alleged, whether the alleged violence 833 was caused by a person acting in self-defense; 834

(iii) Each person's fear of physical harm, if any, 835 resulting from the other person's threatened use of force 836 against any person or resulting from the other person's use or 837 history of the use of force against any person, and the 838 reasonableness of that fear; 839

(iv) The comparative severity of any injuries suffered by 840 the persons involved in the alleged offense. 841

(e) (i) A peace officer described in division (A) of this 842 section shall not require, as a prerequisite to arresting or 843 charging a person who has committed the offense of domestic 844 violence or the offense of violating a protection order, that 845 the victim of the offense specifically consent to the filing of 846 charges against the person who has committed the offense or sign 847 a complaint against the person who has committed the offense. 848

(ii) If a person is arrested for or charged with 849 committing the offense of domestic violence or the offense of 850 violating a protection order and if the victim of the offense 851 does not cooperate with the involved law enforcement or 852 prosecuting authorities in the prosecution of the offense or, 853 subsequent to the arrest or the filing of the charges, informs 854 the involved law enforcement or prosecuting authorities that the 855 victim does not wish the prosecution of the offense to continue 856 or wishes to drop charges against the alleged offender relative 857 to the offense, the involved prosecuting authorities, in 858 determining whether to continue with the prosecution of the 859 offense or whether to dismiss charges against the alleged 860 offender relative to the offense and notwithstanding the 861 victim's failure to cooperate or the victim's wishes, shall 862 consider all facts and circumstances that are relevant to the 863 offense, including, but not limited to, the statements and 864 observations of the peace officers who responded to the incident 865 that resulted in the arrest or filing of the charges and of all 866 witnesses to that incident. 867

(f) In determining pursuant to divisions (B) (3) (a) to (g) 868 of this section whether to arrest a person pursuant to division 869
(B) (1) of this section, a peace officer described in division 870
(A) of this section shall not consider as a factor any possible 871 shortage of cell space at the detention facility to which the 872 person will be taken subsequent to the person's arrest or any 873 possibility that the person's arrest might cause, contribute to, 874 or exacerbate overcrowding at that detention facility or at any 875 other detention facility. 876

(g) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 877 section intends pursuant to divisions (B) (3) (a) to (g) of this 878 section to arrest a person pursuant to division (B) (1) of this 879 section and if the officer is unable to do so because the person 880 is not present, the officer promptly shall seek a warrant for 881 the arrest of the person. 882

(h) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 883 section responds to a report of an alleged incident of the 884 offense of domestic violence or an alleged incident of the 885 offense of violating a protection order and if the circumstances 886 of the incident involved the use or threatened use of a deadly 887 weapon or any person involved in the incident brandished a 888 deadly weapon during or in relation to the incident, the deadly 889 weapon that was used, threatened to be used, or brandished 890 constitutes contraband, and, to the extent possible, the officer 891 shall seize the deadly weapon as contraband pursuant to Chapter 892 2981. of the Revised Code. Upon the seizure of a deadly weapon 893 pursuant to division (B) (3) (h) of this section, section 2981.12 894 of the Revised Code shall apply regarding the treatment and 895 disposition of the deadly weapon. For purposes of that section, 896 the "underlying criminal offense" that was the basis of the 897 seizure of a deadly weapon under division (B) (3) (h) of this 898 section and to which the deadly weapon had a relationship is any 899 of the following that is applicable: 900

(i) The alleged incident of the offense of domestic 901 violence or the alleged incident of the offense of violating a 902 protection order to which the officer who seized the deadly 903 weapon responded; 904

(ii) Any offense that arose out of the same facts and 905 circumstances as the report of the alleged incident of the 906 offense of domestic violence or the alleged incident of the 907 offense of violating a protection order to which the officer who 908 seized the deadly weapon responded. 909

(4) If, in the circumstances described in divisions (B) (3) 910
(a) to (g) of this section, a peace officer described in 911 division (A) of this section arrests and detains a person 912 pursuant to division (B) (1) of this section, or if, pursuant to 913 division (B) (3) (h) of this section, a peace officer described in 914 division (A) of this section seizes a deadly weapon, the 915 officer, to the extent described in and in accordance with 916 section 9.86, 2743.02, or 2744.03 of the Revised Code, is immune 917 in any civil action for damages for injury, death, or loss to 918 person or property that arises from or is related to the arrest 919 and detention or the seizure. 920

(C) When there is reasonable ground to believe that a 921 violation of division (A) (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of section 922 4506.15 or a violation of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code 923 has been committed by a person operating a motor vehicle subject 924 to regulation by the public utilities commission of Ohio under 925 Title XLIX of the Revised Code, a peace officer with authority 926 to enforce that provision of law may stop or detain the person 927 whom the officer has reasonable cause to believe was operating 928 the motor vehicle in violation of the division or section and, 929 after investigating the circumstances surrounding the operation 930 of the vehicle, may arrest and detain the person. 931

(D) If a sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, 932 municipal police officer, member of a police force employed by a 933 metropolitan housing authority under division (D) of section 934 3735.31 of the Revised Code, member of a police force employed 935 by a regional transit authority under division (Y) of section 936

~~(C)~~(C) (1) A person may seek relief under this section on 1603 respondent is or was in a dating relationship constitutes good 1639 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 1648 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 1649 violence against the family or household member or person with 1650 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. 1651

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 1652 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 1653

of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 1657 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 1658 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 1659 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 1660 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 1664 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 1665 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 1666 court: 1667

expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 1677 upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 1678 under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 1679 grants a continuance under that division. 1680

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 1681 section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 1682 requests an ex parte order but the court does not issue an ex 1683 parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 1684 as in a normal civil action and grant a full hearing on the 1685 matter. 1686

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 1687 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 1688 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 1689 violence against the family or household members or persons with 1690 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. The 1691 order or agreement may: 1692 household members or persons with whom the respondent is or was 1695 in a dating relationship; 1696

(b) With respect to a petition involving family or 1697 household members, grant possession of the residence or 1698 household to the petitioner or other family or household member, 1699 to the exclusion of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, 1700 when the residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 1701 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 1702 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 1703 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 1704 petitioner or other family or household member; 1705

(c) With respect to a petition involving family or 1706 household members, when the respondent has a duty to support the 1707 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 1708 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 1709 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 1710 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 1711 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 1712 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 1713 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 1714 suitable, alternative housing; 1715

(d) With respect to a petition involving family or 1716 household members, temporarily allocate parental rights and 1717 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 1718 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 1719 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 1720 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or	1721

parenting time rights;	1722
(e) With respect to a petition involving family or	1723
household members, require the respondent to maintain support,	1724
if the respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the	1725 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent	1726 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household	1727
member;	1728
(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic	1729 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek	1730 counseling;	1731
(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the	1732 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the	1733 petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or	1734 household members, a family or household member;	1735
(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable	1736 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent	1737 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or, with	1738 respect to a petition involving family or household members,	1739 other family or household members and the apportionment of	1740 household and family personal property;	1741
(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide,	1742 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by	1743
the petitioner;	1744
(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal	1745 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent;	1746
(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with	1747 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code.	1748

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this section in a prior action involving the respondent and the petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or household members, one or more of the family or household members or victims, the court may include in a protection order that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against the respondent returning to the residence or household in the order, it also shall include in the order provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does not preclude the court from including in a protection order or consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or household members, a family or household member, and, if the court includes any requirement of that type in an order or agreement, the court also shall include in the order provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section.

(b) With respect to an order involving family or household members, subject to the limitation on the duration of an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 1780 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 1781 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 1782 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 1783 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 1784 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1785 petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 1786 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 1787 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 1788 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 1789 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 1790 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 1791 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 1792 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1793 petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 1794

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1795 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 1796 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 1797 approved. 1798

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 1799 a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 1800 court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing 1801 under division (E) (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 1802 this section unless all of the following apply: 1803

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 1804 protection order in accordance with this section. 1805

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 1806 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 1807 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 1808 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 1809

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 1810 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 1811 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 1812 specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing 1813 with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 1814

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 1815 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 1816 the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 1817 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 1818 an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 1819 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the 1820 Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted 1821 primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the 1822 respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 1823

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement 1824 approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to 1825 any real property. 1826

(6) (a) With respect to an order involving family or 1827 household members, if a petitioner, or the child of a 1828 petitioner, who obtains a protection order or consent agreement 1829 pursuant to division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary 1830 protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code 1831 and is the subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to 1832 section 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation 1833 or companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 1834 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of 1835 this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, 1836 the court may require the public children services agency of the 1837 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 1838 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 1839 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 1840 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 1841 of fact: 1842

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 1843

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 1844 supervision. 1845

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 1846 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 1847 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 1848 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 1849 income or resources to pay that cost. 1850

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 1851 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 1852 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 1853 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 1854 place of employment of the petitioner or, with respect to a 1855 petition involving family or household members, a family or 1856 household member, the order or agreement shall state clearly 1857 that the order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 1858 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 1859 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1860 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 1861 those places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or 1862 other family or household member. 1863

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 1864 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 1865 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 1866 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 1867 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 1868 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 1869 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 1870 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1871

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 1872 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 1873 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 1874 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 1875 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 1876 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 1877 pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 1878

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 1879 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 1880 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 1881 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 1882 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 1883 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 1884 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 1885 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 1886 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 1887 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 1888 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 1889 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 1890 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 1891 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 1892 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 1893 because the terms of the original protection order or consent 1894 agreement are no longer appropriate. 1895

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 1896 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 1897 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 1898 including, but not limited to, the following:	1899

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or termination of the protection order or consent agreement;	1900 1901
(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent;	1902
(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the petitioner and the respondent;	1903 1904
(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the petitioner and respondent have minor children together;	1905 1906 1907 1908
(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and conditions of the original protection order or consent agreement;	1909 1910 1911
(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with illegal drugs or alcohol;	1912 1913
(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order or approval of the consent agreement;	1914 1915 1916 1917
(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, or the law of any other state;	1918 1919 1920 1921 1922
(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling;	1923 1924 1925 1926

(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order 1927 was issued or since the consent agreement was approved; 1928

(xi) The age and health of the respondent; 1929

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or 1930 commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other 1931 relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the 1932 petitioner or other protected parties. 1933

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified 1934 or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this section, 1935 the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 1936 or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 1937 petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 1938 termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1939 county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 1940 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 1941 section. 1942

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 1943 termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 1944 to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 1945 assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 1946 motion. 1947

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 1948 approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 1949 the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 1950 proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on 1951 the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 1952 the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the 1953 respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 1954 protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or 1955 consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 1956 attains the age of nineteen years. 1957

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 1958 agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 1959 under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1960 petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 1961 agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 1962 agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be 1963 delivered to the respondent on the same day that the order is 1964 entered. 1965

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 1966 approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 1967 shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the 1968 following notice orally or by form: 1969

"NOTICE 1970

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be 1971 unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a 1972 rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal 1973 law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order or 1974 consent agreement. If you have any questions whether this law 1975 makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or 1976 ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 1977

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 1978 maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved 1979 consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to 1980 division (F) (1) of this section. With respect to each order and 1981 consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 1982 the date and time that it received the order or consent 1983 agreement. 1984

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 1985 the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 1986 agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this 1987 section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 1988 protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 1989 court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 1990 order or agreement, including removing the respondent from the 1991 premises, if appropriate. 1992

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 1993 conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, 1994 except that an order under this section may be obtained with or 1995 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 1996 ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a 1997 consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or 1998 approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a 1999 protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify 2000 or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a 2001 final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in 2002 this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 2003 available civil or criminal remedies. 2004

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 2005 order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 2006 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 2007 motion, shall order that the ex parte order issued under this 2008 section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 2009 be sealed after either of the following occurs: 2010

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 2011
Rule 4 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 2012

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted. 2013

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 2014 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 2015 required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 2016 law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 2017 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 2018 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 2019 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 2020
Code. 2021

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 2022 domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or 2023 household members involved, or the persons in the dating 2024 relationship who are involved, whichever is applicable regarding 2025 the relief available under this section and, for family or 2026 household members, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 2027

(J) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (8) (e) and (J) (2) of this 2028 section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 2029 or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 2030 or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local 2031 government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, 2032 or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to 2033 this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 2034 registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 2035 or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 2036 subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 2037 or consent agreement. 2038

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 2039 a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 2040 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 2041 the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 2042 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 2043 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 2044 of a protection order or consent agreement. 2045

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 2046
3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 2047 an order for child support under this section. 2048

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 2049 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 2050 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 2051 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 2052 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 2053 to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 2054 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 2055 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 2056 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 2057 relation to the act of contempt. 2058

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or 2059 a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 2060 the following sanctions: 2061

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 2062 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 2063 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 2064 constitutes a violation of that section; 2065

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 2066

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 2067 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 2068 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 2069 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 2070 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 2071
However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 2072 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 2073 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 2074 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 2075 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 2076 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 2077

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 2078 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 2079

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 2080 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 2081 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 2082 notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 2083 the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 2084 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 2085 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 2086 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 2087 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 2088 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 2089 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 2090 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 2091 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 2092 county of this state by registering the order in that county 2093 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 2094 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 2095 that county. 2096

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 2097 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 2098 than the county in which the court that issued the order or 2099 approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 2100

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 2101 order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 2102 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 2103 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 2104 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 2105 or agreement is to be registered. 2106

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 2107 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 2108 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 2109 endorsement of registration on the order or agreement and give 2110 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 2111 proof of registration. 2112

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 2113 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 2114 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 2115 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 2116 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 2117 been registered with the clerk. 2118

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic 2119 relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that 2120 have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in 2121 counties that do not have a domestic relations division from 2122 designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection 2123 order or consent agreement. 2124

Section 2. That existing sections 109.744, 109.803, 2125 2903.01, 2919.27, 2929.12, 2929.22, 2935.03, 2935.032, 2935.033, 2126 2937.23, and 3113.31 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 2127

Section 3. The General Assembly, in enacting this act, 2128 encourages prosecuting attorneys, in cases related to an 2129 incident of domestic violence, to consider the totality of the 2130 circumstances, to review all of the evidence in the case, and to 2131 resist seeking voluntary dismissal or an entry of nolle prosequi 2132 based solely on the victim's wishes, unless justice demands 2133 otherwise. 2134

Section 4. The General Assembly respectfully requests the 2135 Ohio Supreme Court to review the Ohio Rules of Evidence to 2136 consider how the Rules may better aid victims of domestic 2137 violence without diminishing the fundamental fairness to alleged 2138 perpetrators of domestic violence. 2139

Section 5. This act shall be known as Aisha's Law. 2140
