A RESOLUTION

Honoring St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral on its One Hundredth Anniversary.

WHEREAS, The members of the House of Representatives of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to pay tribute to St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral on the celebration of its Centennial, October 13, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Standing for a century on the reverential foundation built by immigrants from Western Ukraine, St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral has offered its members the pathway to a more meaningful life. Under the exemplary guidance of its current spiritual leaders, His Eminence Metropolitan Antony, His Eminence Archbishop Daniel, the Reverend Michael Hontaruk, the Reverend John Nakonachny, and Protodeacon Ihor Mahlay, this hallowed church has served as a tremendous source of inspiration, strength, and hope; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception in 1924, St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral has been an unceasing source of moral guidance and spiritual motivation for its congregation. Over the years, the church has enhanced the quality of life within Parma and the surrounding area, and its tradition, benevolence, and generosity have earned it great esteem; and

WHEREAS, An occasion such as this is an important milestone, and for one hundred years, the members of St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral have nurtured their faith, stood strong in the face of challenges, and persevered through unity and dedication. Indeed, on this special anniversary, we praise them for carrying their beliefs into the future and being vibrant spiritual stewards throughout their communities; therefore be it
