S. R. No. 271

Senator Schaffer

A RESOLUTION

In memory of Emily Michele DeArdo.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio were deeply saddened to learn of the death of Emily Michele DeArdo and extend our heartfelt condolences to her family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Emily DeArdo left an indelible impression on the people whose lives she touched, and she will be remembered as a spirited individual who contributed immeasurably to the world around her. Emily began working in the Ohio Senate as an Ohio Legislative Service Commission Fellow in 2004. Following completion of the fellowship, Emily joined the Ohio Senate to work as an aide for Senator Gary Cates and then as a member of the communications team in the Senate Republican Caucus. Emily was a strong advocate for organ donation as she lived her life with cystic fibrosis and bravely became the first recipient of a double lung transplant at Nationwide Children's Hospital in 2005. She did not let the pain she surely endured throughout her life define her or hold her back. Emily was a devoted Catholic and lived her faith serving as a lector at St. Matthew Church and is the author of Living Memento Mori: My Journey through the Stations of the Cross; and

WHEREAS, Emily DeArdo's regard for improving the quality of life in our society was clearly evident in her personal sacrifices of time and effort to her family, friends, and community. Never content waiting on the sideline, Emily was determined to use her knowledge and talents to the fullest and leave an enduring mark on the world. In 2015, she was successful in her bid to be chosen as a contestant on the television game show, Jeopardy! Although she did not end up winning, she was pleased at having answered the Final Jeopardy question quickly and correctly. Additionally, she was a lover of the 28 arts and possessed a beautiful voice and participated in community 29 theater. Giving generously of her energy and abilities in all of her 30 endeavors, she displayed exceptional concern and insight, and her 31 absence will be keenly felt; and 32

WHEREAS, Emily DeArdo always used her talents to the benefit of 33 others, including her parents, Carmen and Michele, her siblings, Bryan 34 and Melanie, and a wealth of other relatives and friends, and the 35 laurels of her life stand as a tribute not only to her but also to 36 those she left behind. Although the void her death has created can 37 never be filled, the legacy of care and commitment she established 38 will surely live on. The world is a richer place for her having been 39 in it, and she will be sorely missed; therefore be it 40
